
Tuck in with a cosy, inspired collection of short fiction in Mary Murphy's new book, Speaking Of, published December 2022 and available worldwide in paperback and eBook formats.

ABOUT THE BOOK

Wander back to a simpler, but more secretive, time when Neala meets Imogen and unspoken love unfolds over a lifetime. Follow a charlatan from her humble mining town beginnings to her unceremonious career-ending visit from an old friend. Delight in the bickering banter of Irish spirits across a graveyard, and a painter's dreamscape of swans. Meet our future selves, resisting globalized government control and a world of hologram consciences that want independence. More stories await you… dive in!

ABOUT THE AUTHOR, MARY MURPHY

This is Mary's fifth book release. Her other books include another work of fiction, The Emerald Diaries and a children's trilogy with audio - Away with the Fairies. Born in Wexford, Ireland, Mary is also a singer/songwriter and co-owner of a recording studio on Vancouver Island, Canada.

PURCHASING

Title:	Speaking Of (A houseful of eclectic works of fiction)
Author:	Mary Murphy
Publisher:	Dove Creek Studios
ISBN:	978-1-7387936-0-0
Page count:	308 pages (Amazon), 314 Pages (Ingram)
Size:	5.25" x 8"
Price:	$24.95 CAD, Bulk and Bookstore discounts available

"This is a beautiful piece of writing. It is observational, descriptive, thought provoking and fully realised. There is an intuitive mind at work and a subtle curiosity here that values the reader. It rewards them with a bouquet of delightful stories that beguile and charm with equal measure." ~ John O'Regan, Journalist/Broadcaster/ Lecturer RTE/LCCR – Eclectic Celt, Ireland

marymurphy.ca @marymurphycreates